80,000 Laborers April 1 and 35,000 More Later Will Be Affected by Order.

SAVING MILLION A MONTH

Workers to Confer March 8

With Officials to Try to Settle on Details.

A sharp reduction in the 48% cents an hour scale paid to 30,000 unskilled laborers by the New York Central lines is in contemplation by the road. A meeting of the representatives of these workmen has been called for March 8 in New York, when the facts will be presented to the men and an endeavor to reach an agreement as to just how far the cut shall extend will be made. April 1 is the tentative date for the readjustment to be put into effect.

Officials of the New York Central lines said yesteday that it has become necessary to reduce the wages of this class of labor, and that it is their hope that am amicable adjustment will be reached with the men. If not, the problem will be presented to the United States Labor Board.

The order which has gone out affects each member sufficient money to purchase railroad transportation to the place of departure.

Gov. Miller vetoed to-day the Smith Walton bill licensing ticket speculators at few of $100 a year and prohibiting them from charging more than 50 cents above box office prices. The Governor said that as the arre tickets are articles of commerce any attempt to regulate the price could be done only by exercising the State's police power.

The Governor said the same reasons given by Judge Rosalsky in deciding yield by Judge Rosalsky in deciding the selling of a ticket for more than 50 cents above the regular price are applicable in this case.

With the veto of the Walton-Smith bill there was talk here to-day of reaching the ticket apeculators by legislation to tax them out of existence. Assemblyman Steinberg is considering the introduction of such a measure.

he presented to the United States Lator Hoard.

The order which has gone out affects at this time only the New York Central lines, including the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern. It does not include the Big Four, the Michigan Central and other component parts of the system. The problem will be handled by the executives of these lines individually, following the lead taken by the parent road. Track workers, car isborers, platform workmen, storehouse men, freight handlers and all laborers of a similar class will be included, officials of the road say. Approximately 65,000 men are employed on the entire system in this class of work, and ultimately all will be affected by whatever decision is reached at the conference.

officials of the road will propose that

Officials of the road will propose that the rate of pay be reduced from the straight 48½ cents per heur to a fair differential above the going rate for labor in each section of the country. This rate, they will aver, ranges at the present time from 38 to 39½ cents.

The cut proposed by the New York Central officials is the first this road has formulated since the start of deflation. It is along the same lines as those laid down by the Eric Rallroad, which reduced its unskilled labor from 48½ cents per hour to 38 and 39 cents per hour. The laborers disagreed after conference with the officials, and the case is now before the Rallroad Labor Board. In the meanwhile and pending final decision by the board the Eric has been directed to pay the old scale.

sion by the board the Erie has been directed to pay the old scale.

The action of the New York Central follows directly instructions from the board that any change in the scale of wages should be reached, first, by conference with employees, and if readjustment in this manner is not successful then by appeal to the board for a trial of the case on its merits.

It is estimated that the reduction proposed by the New York Central Railroad in its unakilled labor payroll would effect a saving of approximately $1.000.

a saving of approximately $1,000,-per menth, or about $1 per day per RAILWAY CLERKS ARE HEARD. Tell Labor Board Old Methods of Employers Must Go.

CHICAGO, March 1.—E. H. Fitzgerald, representing rullway clerks, told the Railroad Labor Board to-day that "the old methods of dealing with labor have been weighed and found wanting, and that the railroads' demand for a return of those methods through abrogation of the national agreements would demoralize efficiency."

Mr. Fitzgerald, who is president of the Brotherhood of Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, claiming a membership of 300,000, was the first witness heard when the rules bearing reconvened after a two weeks' recess. CHICAGO, March 1 .- E. H. Fitzgerald,

FOR REGIONAL WAGE BOARDS. Railway Brotherhoods May Make Proposal to Executives.

According to a report in railroad cir-cles the brotherhoods have decided to agree to regional boards of adjustment, and are to submit such an agreement, or proposal, to the heads of the roads. Meetings to be held here by the execu-tives may consider the subject if pre-sented.

The belief is expressed that if boards of adjustment, either regional or individual, as under way in the Pennsylvania system, could be established the problem of dealing with employees would be greatly simplified.

Refuses to Testify Unless Immunity Is Promised.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—John MacDonald's refusal to testify here before the Grand Jury unless he was promised immunity from prosecution for giving false testimony in the trials of Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. MacDonald, an itinerant laborer, came here from New Jersey to substantiate affidavits he made that his testimony in the trials of Mooney and Billings were inspired by the police and the District Attorney's office.
